ISEC7 Group Global Service Provider for Enterprise Mobility Joins BlackBerry World Tour in Eight Cities Worldwide

The leader in mobile endpoint management, security and process optimization shares first look at integrated workspace management and crisis communications offerings

Hamburg, September 25, 2019 – ISEC7 Group (ISEC7) continues to be a driving force in the enterprise mobility sector as top executives join ecosystem partners in London, The Hague, Ottawa, New York City, Toronto, Frankfurt, Singapore and Sydney in the coming months.

“Our customers face challenges every day in a global mobile community. Sure, there many are solutions out there to consider. What clients need is a managed mobility service provider who focuses on business process mobilization, security and risk management within the enterprise mobility space as a practice,” says Marco Gocht, ISEC7 CEO. “If you want clarity for the right solution, we will navigate for you.”

ISEC7 continues to showcase marquis solutions, like ISEC7 EMM Suite and ISEC7 Mobile Exchange Delegate as they continue to broaden functionality and benefits with ecosystem partner integration efforts. As a first-mover in enterprise mobility, ISEC7 teams with leading industry partners worldwide to continuously delivery the latest enterprise solutions for operational productivity.

“ISEC7 is happy to announce an out-of-the-box integration for smart IoT devices into BlackBerry Crisis Communication solution AtHoc.” says Guido Wilken, ISEC7 CDO. “Now, customers can easily mobilize and improve their daily business processes. The integration goes beyond the crisis communication features of AtHoc as we combine smart IoT and business processes for healthcare, first-aid and facility management in the first step.”

Business leaders will gather to share mobile security strategies and tools that enable boundary-free collaboration and best practices in a mobile world and transform the way their organizations perform. ISEC7 will lead in discussions during BlackBerry World Tour 2019 and participate in pre-arranged one-on-one meetings in North America, Australia and Europe. See the following cities and dates:
