PRESS RELEASE

ISEC7 CEO Marco Gocht to Deliver Industry Insights for Mobile IT at the Enterprise Mobility Summit 2018 in Frankfurt

Mobile Security and Business Process Modernization to be Focused Topics in Booth 2

Hamburg, October 5, 2018 – The 6th Enterprise Mobility Summit will soon start in Frankfurt am Main, Germany: On October 18th and 19th, leading enterprise mobility community experts will discuss about enterprise mobility strategies, business process mobilization and cyber security challenges. The enterprise mobility expert from Hamburg, Marco Gocht, will be talking about the perfect play of unified endpoint management (UEM) & Microsoft technologies, as well as, security challenges with mobile IT.

Marco Gocht, CEO ISEC7, explains: "Unified Endpoint Management (UEM) is the standard these days. Customers are challenged with managing legacy and siloed tools, and we are helping them move to the next level. At ISEC7, we see two big trends - Mobile Security and Business Process Mobilization – we are committed to delivering solutions for growth and efficiency."

Enterprise mobility is one of the most important enablers for modern business processes and is at the top of the CIOs' agendas. It is not only a matter of interlinking employees, customers and suppliers in all process chains, but also of successfully implementing new innovations, such as IoT and wearables.

Marco Gocht will speak about "Perfect Integration of BlackBerry & Microsoft Technologies for Management, Apps and Security". The lecture will take place on October 18th. During the Summit, ISEC7 will be represented at booth 2. ISEC7 executives Marco Gocht, Manuel Sosna and BlackBerry representatives will be available for interviews. To schedule a meeting, go to https://www.isec7.com/english/news/events/. Further event information is accessible on the website: www.em-summit.de.
